May 30th ~
June 20th
Special
Memorial Day
recognition on
May 30th

Sending Worship Service and Farewell Potluck for Intern Nathan Strong Sunday, June 27th

At worship on that Sunday, we will have a "Service of Sending." Anyone wanting to give gifts or cards to Nathan can send them to the church office. Thanks. PC

Agape Singers perform at EKLC Wednesday, June 16th 6:00pm

On June 16th, we will be hosting Agape, a singing group made up of high school students from the Dawson, MN, area, for a 6 p.m. concert. These high schoolers come from small rural farming communities around Dawson, where Lindsay Stolen currently serves as an intern pastor. Join us for a wonderful concert and a potluck to follow in Friendship Hall.

Interns Insight

This Peanuts comic strip debates suffering. Why do we suffer? The idea that suffering is necessary within life, that we have brought it against ourselves because of our actions or the actions of others have brought suffering to us. This idea is one that we wrestle with in life. Linus is right when he says, "The problem of suffering is a very profound one."

The most interesting thing about the comic strip above is that Charlie Brown has a question but everyone has an answer. Often when we are suffering, we may ask questions, we long for an answer but we do not find one. Even when people provide answers, they are ones that either do not make sense in our life or they are ones that we do not want to hear. Yet through suffering, we are reminded that we are in need of God, our creator and sustainer. We are drawn to the story of the cross and the suffering that Jesus went through on our behalf.

The church is a place in which we can escape from the world and our lives and we can find forgiveness and relief from the world. It is the place where the message of Christ and his love for the world is proclaimed and gather together to remind one another of that message of Christ. The message of Christ is one that announces love and caring for one another, of Christ removing suffering from us so that we may enjoy peace and comfort. "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest." Matt 11:28 This message is one that is not heard within the world that much. Yet that is one of the main reasons that the message of Christ and the church is so important within the world. This year, I have been blessed to be a part of many people's struggles and suffering, along with joy and helping one another with our faith.

As I am entering into my last month of Internship, I am realizing all of the lessons that I have learned, all the great ministries that I have been involved, but more importantly all the wonderful people that I have been able to meet. The people make up the church. Yes, I have led classes, preached sermons, and plan a number of activities within the church this year but I have learned so much from the congregation members that I am grateful. I have been able to help with families as they say goodbye to a loved one. I have visited people in the hospital when suddenly life took a turn that they were not expecting. I have led classes on various topics. I have helped with confirmation. I have helped with Sunday School. I have served on committees. I have led worship. I have been active within the community. In a sense, I have served as a pastor for this congregation in many capacities. Many of those things listed, I have seen others do. Now I got to be the leader. For all of those lessons and opportunities, I just want to say Thank You. But even those two words do not sum up how grateful I am for this last year.

As I am preparing to go back to an institute that is a theological seminary, I am reminded that it is here in the world and in life that we really interact with God. In life, we see, hear, and receive God's love, grace and comfort from suffering. Along with that, we are all Christ's messengers of God's love and comfort that is found in Jesus Christ. May God grant you peace and blessings.

From Pastor Clint : Letters are Prayers

I happen to think that letter writing is an important form of prayer. When we write a letter, we hold the recipient in mind, attend to what words need to be written, and simply keep that person and situation in mind and before God as we write.

The most sustained letter-writing (snail mail) I've ever engaged in was during my time in Slovakia with a friend from Seattle, WA. He and I carried on a correspondence over a couple of years, averaging one or two letters a week, some lengthy. I have to say that writing back and forth that frequently meant we were conducting a friendship at a level much deeper and profound than many of the friendships I had face-to-face.

Our letters included poems, stories, philosophy, theology, cultural analysis, description. They ranged widely. I still remember one letter especially where he offered a kind of prayer based on a Psalm 46:10:

"Be still and know that I am God.

Be still and know that I AM.

Be still and know that...

Be still and know.

Be still and...

Be.

We both made use of this prayer as a kind of mantra, reminding ourselves that we can be still and know that God is. That God is "I Am Who I Am." That we can trust that. That we can simply rest in knowing that. That sometimes you can be still, and the "and" comes along in the stillness. Just be still. Just be.

My friend was more of a mystic, and so was happy to leave it at that. Myself, still irrepressibly Lutheran, I like to remember that I am called to be still, to just be, because that's the best response to know that we are justified for Jesus' sake. God does it, not us.

No matter how you frame it, either theologically in terms of the proclamation of the Gospel, or apophatically, in the presence of God the I AM, it makes a great prayer, and I commend it for regular use.

As an addendum, I should add that my friend is now an Orthodox monk, and I am a Lutheran pastor. I believe that correspondence we conducted over the years helped shape our individual vocations. God can get in the middle of epistolary conversations and do a new thing.

In Christ, Pastor Clint

p.s. Are you interested in writing letters as a form of ministry. We are always looking for members to write thank you notes, and send notes to our missionaries, college students, and homebound members. Give me a call or write me a letter if you would like to participate in a ministry of letters.

Newsletter Update

Thank you to everyone who offered feedback and sent in requests to receive the newsletter either by mail or e-mail. Based on your responses, we have decided to continue to send out the newsletter by mail to the whole congregation, and by e-mail to those who requested it in that format. Sending it out in bulk to the congregation remains the least expensive option, because we receive a bulk rate from the post office. It is our goal to consolidate as many communications and notes as possible into this one newsletter, so thank you for taking the time to read it thoroughly each month. Thank you to everyone who responded, and we pray that the church newsletter will be widely read.

In Christ, Pastor Clint Schnekloth and Julie Kriedeman, Office Manager

March Council Minutes ~ March 16, 2010

Present at the meeting: Steve Wagner, Trudy Spike, Kurt Klemp, Sabra Jacobson, Pastor Clint Schnekloth, Jaime Lewellin, Peggy Luther, Intern Nathan Strong and Bonnie Ehrke.

Pastor opened the meeting reading the Parable of the lost sheep.

In accordance with the financial report Pastor shared with us the ways that staff are attempting to reduce the office budget. This includes posting the monthly newsletter on the church website rather than mailing it out to every household. A hard copy will still be available to those that specifically request it. It was also decided that an article will be included in the newsletter of any updates about the building loan repayment. Trudy motioned to approve the consent agenda, seconded by Kurt. Motion approved

Other budget reducing option, what if we could find someone to keep up our church website for free?

LEAD Seminar, March 13, 2010, was attended by Carolyn, Bonnie, Steve, Kurt and Peggy. Focus was on cheerfully giving. Peggy particularly enjoyed a skit that she saw. Ideas were gathered about the generational differences that exist in our world/church.

Focus for congregational retreat will be decided at April council meeting.

Pastor reported to council about Triads - Life Transformation Groups.

Church sponsored trip deposits are non-refundable. Motion made by Steve, seconded by Trudy. Motion passed unanimously.

July Rummage Sale, tentatively planned for Sunday July 11, 2010. Service will also be held outside, weather permitting.

Reviewed and updated list of inactive members.

Meeting ended with the Lord's prayer.

Sabra motion to adjourn, seconded by everyone.

April Council Minutes ~ April 20, 2010

Present at the meeting: Pastor Clint Schnekloth, Intern Nathan Strong, Steve Wagner, Peggy Luther, Jaime Lewellin, Trudy Spike, Bonnie Ehrke, Kurt Klemp, Elizabeth Kaashagen and Sabra Jacobson.

Meeting opened with Nathan's reading of gifts of the spirit passage from 1 Corinthians Chapter 12.

Financial report discussed; giving down slightly from last year, payment paid towards principle on loan. Committee and Financial reports placed on file.

Julie Kriedeman's week off for Holy week will be reinstated due to a death in the family at that time. Motion made by Trudy, seconded by Sabra, Unanimously approved.

Intern Update: Intern Nathan's last day will be June 30th. August 1st 2010 the new intern will arrive. Miranda Hinrichs quick facts: attends Bethel Seminary, holds an English Degree, involved in college and young adult ministries, is from IOWA (oh, great another one), currently works with a Navigator group.

Refugee Update: Family is doing well adjusting to their life in Madison where children are enrolled in that school district. Attended Service at EKLC 4/18.

Discussion beginning on the prospect of Pastor Clint forming a purposeful Sabbatical. Some very promising grants that are available that would be applied for. Will need a committee to be developed with congregational support.

Discernment Ministries: Sarah Yotter, multi-generational topical speaker, will be invited to speak with the congregation for Rally day. Daycare provided and potluck to be planned for.

Council discussion on personal signs of spiritual growth.

Congregational Rummage Sale planned for July. Trudy and Sabra will get more details together this month.

Lords prayer

Meeting adjourned.

Meet Intern Miranda Hinrichs

Greetings! I am looking forward to the upcoming year of serving with you! I am excited to get to know the community at East Koshkonong. I will let you know a little about myself, and I hope to learn more about you when I arrive in August.

I grew up in the country near Lisbon, Iowa. We were active in an ELCA church in Cedar Rapids. Family and faith were very important to me as a child. I love spending time with friends and family. It is also life giving for me to be active and spend time outdoors. I enjoy reading, playing guitar, and hearing live music. I have also trained in the martial art of Taekwondo for nearly 20 years.

I developed a passion for discipleship and mission during high school and college. I experienced worship in a variety of ministry settings which contributed to my passion for unity within the body of Christ. While working at Okoboji Lutheran Bible Camp for five summers I grew in enjoyment and skills in ministry.

After graduating from Iowa State University, I moved to Saint Paul, MN, where I have worked in the public schools with special education students and volunteered with the Navigators collegiate ministry and 20's and 30's ministry. I worked as a Children's Minister for three years and grew in my love for the church and for equipping people for ministry.

I am excited about the fact that it is God who comes to us in the midst of our brokenness in order to bring about healing and reconciliation, and about the fact that we too are called to follow Christ and enter into the world with others in order to be a part of God's work in the world. My life experiences both joyous and sorrowful have contributed to my call to ministry. I have learned the importance of being a safe place for people to ask questions of faith. Through the deaths of family members, both young and old, I have learned of God's healing presence, the importance of honest prayer, and the blessing of loving community.

I graduate from Bethel Seminary in June. I have lived in Minnesota the last 8 years, but I am looking forward to the opportunity to explore Wisconsin! I am excited that we can come alongside each other in life and faith through community experiences, worship, outreach, Bible study, prayer, and listening to each other's stories. Thank you for the opportunity to join you.

Church RUMMAGE

Now is the time to start looking through your garages, basements and attics for all unwanted treasures for the EKLC All Church Yard Sale! Sales will go toward the Building Loan
Sunday, July 11, 2010
Starting at 10:30 am
 Look for more details to come....

Give to those in need

John the Baptist spoke to a crowd, telling them they should be fruitful. When the crowd asked how they could be fruitful, John the Baptist responded with some specific ideas.

Unscramble John the Baptist's reply from Luke 3:11 (NIV), and write the words in the blanks below.

★ WORD BANK ★

with food him who should with man share do the should two tunics has the who none and one the same has

Answer: "The man with two tunics should share with him who has none, and the one who has food should do the same." (Luke 3:11, NIV)

Lamb Mission Bank

God can do great things with our gifts. This craft reminds us that every little coin counts.

When your lamb is full, empty out the coins and give them to a charity or church mission program.

What you need:

- Knit glove (black or white)
- 1-foot-long piece of thin ribbon, any color
- Stapler
- Craft glue or hot glue gun
- Fiberfill or cotton balls
- 2 googly eyes

What you do:

1. Staple one end of the ribbon to the inside of each side of the glove's opening to make a hanger.
2. For the lamb's body, cover the palm and half of the thumb with glue. Stick the fiberfill or cotton balls onto the glue.
3. Glue a googly eye to each side of the mitten's thumb. (The other fingers will be the legs.)
4. Hang the lamb where you'll see it often. Whenever you have extra change, drop it into your lamb bag.

Events

Evangelical Lutheran Church in America

God's work. Our hands.

Synod Assembly June 5 & 6, 2010

The 2010 Synod Assembly will be held at the Kalahari Resort and Convention Center in Wisconsin Dells on Saturday and Sunday, June 5 & 6.

Please pray for all those attending this year's South-Central Synod Assembly, including our own Pastor Clint and Intern Nathan Strong as well as our 2010 delegates, Don Amundson and Kimberly Cutrano. Thank you to all of them for representing EKLC as they attend the assembly.

Rainbow Trail Compass Points Trip

Thank you for lifting up in prayer the youth and adults traveling in June to Colorado for a backpacking trip at Rainbow Trail Lutheran Bible Camp; Emily Eikland, Kylie Close, Adam Gunnelson, Torleif Ehrke, Mikaela Ehrke, Kolt Wegner, Augie McGinnity, and Seth Wagner. The group will visit Intern Nathan's home congregation on the way to and from the camp, and will have the opportunity to pack out on trail three days, and go whitewater rafting, plus participation in worship and bible study at RTLC.

Global Health Ministries ~ Baby Blankets

- I will no longer be sending yarn to the women's prison in Waupun. But, I will continue to collect yarn. We have people in our congregation who have been making many baby blankets also. Especially Kitty Epperson, Mickey Farrar and Reagan Hromatko. We also have people who are making prayer shawls, sweaters hats, mittens and scarf's. So if you have some yarn you want to get rid of or you see a good buy at a garage sale or St. Vinny's I will gladly take it. If you are someone who would like some yarn to make some of these things let me know and I will get some to you. When I get the last blankets from Waupun I will give you a correct count of the blankets we have sent to Global Health Ministries. But right now with the ones from our congregation and Waupun I have sent about 200 baby blankets. Thank you, thank you, thank you.

~ Beverly Lien

Thank You

- I wish to express my "thanks" to everyone who sent me cards and those who attended the coffee hour in honor of my birthday. "Thanks" also to Sandra, Mary Beth, Sue and Barbara for helping in the serving. A very special thanks to Cheri who planned and carried out a wonderful, memorable weekend for me.

~Jo Lee

- I would like to thank all of East Koshkonong Lutheran Church for your kind words of encouragement, prayers and cards when my brother-in-law, Leland Caudill passed away in April. A special thank you to the EKLC Church Council for the beautiful Azalea basket, it's beautiful and reminds me of the beautiful Azaleas that bloom in Mississippi. May God bless you all.

~Julie Kriedeman

- "Thank you to all the EKLC friends who have written me since Dan's sudden and unexpected death. We are still in shock at his passing; we never suspected he was not in at least fair health because he never complained. If any good can come out of this, perhaps someone may visit their doctor for a check-up and not have a sudden event such as his. Please keep our family in your prayers as we continue to get resettled in Sugar Grove, Illinois. I miss my times as organist at EKLC, which gave me great satisfaction."

Cambridge Food Pantry Going Green

The Cambridge Food Pantry & Resource Center is going green! Beginning Monday, June 7th, the food pantry will be handing out reusable grocery bags donated by the Madison Foundation, to all food pantry clients. The pantry will no longer keep paper or plastic bags on hand.

A huge THANK YOU to everyone who donated food and helped out during the Letter Carrier Annual Food Drive on May 8th. During this food drive 3,650 pounds of non-perishable food was collected from the 53523 postal code! Way to Go.

A few items the pantry is currently in need of are: baking ingredients(sugar, salt, brown sugar, pepper), coffee, crackers, ravioli, ketchup, mustard, kids snacks and shampoo.

The Cambridge Food Pantry is open to shoppers every Monday during June from 5:30 - 7 pm, doors unlock at 5pm. Donations are accepted Monday from 9-1pm & 4-5pm, Tuesday from 9-11am and Thursday from 9-3pm. The pantry is located at 211 South Street, under the blue awning. For further information contact Wanda at 423-8142 or email foodpantry@cambridge.k12.wi.us.

Thank you for your continued support of the Cambridge Food Pantry & Resource Center.
